

PRESS RELEASE, 6 June 2023

The European Academy of Sciences and Arts (EASA) Salzburg

in cooperation with the Laboratory of Networks and Telecommunication Systems, Services and Security of the Department of Informatics of the University of Piraeus (NetLab)

invites you to join in the STEM in Arts and Culture (STEMAC) workshop and brainstorming session,

on Thursday 8 June 2023, 17:00 – 21:00 (Athens Time)

Attention.: After the preplanned program of short presentations by the speakers, a critical discussion will follow and participants will be given the opportunity to report on their current projects as well as their proposals, and the presenters and participants will be given room for discussion, with a lot short individual interventions/ questions and answers.

Place: Central Conference Auditorium, University of Piraeus, 80 Karaoli and Dimitriou, 18534, Piraeus, Greece

Contact point: Dr_Dimitrios Kotsifakos, (kotsifakos@unipi.gr)

Approved by:

- the MSc "Digital Culture, Smart Cities, IoT and Advanced Digital Technologies", Department of Informatics, University of Piraeus,
- with the support of the Hellenic Physical Society
